

P2 Sentence Rewriting (plural, question, negative, too either, and or but, punctuation)

Change the following sentences into plural form.

1. This is a picture of my family.

2. There is not any tomato in the fridge.

3. He is drawing a picture of his favourite fruit.

4. The child has a bunch of beautiful flower in his hand.

5. The star in the sky is sparkling brightly.

6. There is an orange flowers on the grass.

Change the following sentences into question form.

1. The fish is in the pond.

2. He knows the answer well.

3. We will not go to the playground on our own.

4. I am dancing on my own.

5. You saw the performance of the circus.

Change the following sentences into negative form.

1. The sun rises from the west.

2. There is much sugar left in the jar.

3. We shall be humble and honest.

4. The children love singing and dancing.

5. Mother cut the cake into half and put it onto two plates.

Combine the following sentences with too and either.

1. I love singing. I love dancing.

2. John doesn't like singing. Ben doesn't like singing.

3. I do not like going to the park. He doesn't like going to the park.

4. He is strong. She is strong.

Combine the following sentences into and, or , but.

1. Do you like swimming? Do you like dancing?

2. I don't like swimming. I don't like dancing.

3. I like dancing. I don't like swimming.

4. We have planned to go on a picnic. It rains heavily.

5. I love apple. I love banana. I love papaya.

Add suitable punctuation in the following sentences.

1. John asked Betty do you want to have a drink

2. Betty replied Id like to have some soup

3. Mother yelled Dont lie John We have to be honest

4. New year eve is a public holiday and on the first day of january.

5. Did you sleep well last night Howard asked mother.

Answer

Plural

1. These are pictures of our families.
2. There are not any tomatoes in the fridges.
3. They are drawing pictures of their favourite fruits.
4. The children have bunches of beautiful flowers in their hands.
5. The stars in the sky are sparkling brightly.
6. There are orange flowers on the grass.

Question form

1. Is the fish in the pond?
2. Does he know the answer well?
3. Will we go to the playground on our own?
4. Are you dancing on your own?
5. Did I see the performance of the circus?

Negative form

1. The sun does not rise from the west.
2. There isn't much sugar left in the jar.
3. We won't be humble and honest.
4. The children don't be singing and dancing.
5. Mother didn't cut the cake into half and put it onto two plates. (cut with no s > past tense)

Answer

Too either

1. I love singing. I love dancing too.
2. John doesn't like singing. Ben doesn't like singing either.
3. I do not like going to the park. He doesn't like going to the park either.
4. He is strong. She is strong too.

And/ or / but

1. Do you like swimming or dancing?
2. I don't like swimming. I don't like dancing either.
3. I like dancing but I don't like swimming.
4. We have planned to go on a picnic but it rains heavily.
5. I love apple, banana and papaya.

Punctuate

1. John asked Betty, "Do you want to have a drink?"
2. Betty replied, "I'd like to have some soup."
3. Mother yelled, "Don't lie, John. We have to be honest."
4. New Year's Eve is a public holiday, and it falls on the first day of January.
5. "Did you sleep well last night?" Howard asked mother.